

Re-Activate U.S. Capitol Police Mounted Unit

Ill-advised decommissioning of mounted unit jeopardizes public safety!

ACTION ALERT

Immediate public action

is required to reinstate one of the few horse-mounted law enforcement units in the Nation's capital.

The U.S. Capitol Police are responsible for the safety and security of Congress and Capitol Hill in Washington, D.C. The officers ensure the safety of our elected officials, Congressional staff, adjacent neighborhoods, and the many American and foreign visitors to Capitol Hill.

An elite U.S. Capitol Police mounted unit, established by Congress in 2003, was decommissioned September 2005. Disbanding this mounted unit is a waste of tax-payer dollars and jeopardizes the safety of Congress and the public.

The Friends of the Capitol Police Mounted Officers is a diverse group of individuals with law enforcement, equestrian and public service backgrounds.

This website provides information and outlines what YOU can do to help re-activate this essential mounted police unit.

PLEASE CONTACT YOUR ELECTED OFFICIALS AND URGE THEM TO REACTIVATE
THE U.S. CAPITOL POLICE MOUNTED UNIT!
